

Vi-Jon – Expanded Recall of magnesium citrate saline laxative oral solution

- On July 15, 2022, Vi-Jon announced a voluntary consumer-level recall of all lots of various brands of Magnesium Citrate Saline Laxative oral solution products because they contain the bacteria, Gluconacetobacter liquefaciens.
- This is an expansion to the recall that Vi-Jon announced on June 22, 2022.
 - Clinical Services will send notifications to members and their providers impacted by this recall.
 - The notifications provide information to determine if the member has recalled product on hand.
 - Other magnesium citrate products that are not being recalled are available for patients to use. Over-the-counter laxatives that share the same indication as magnesium citrate are also available.
- Refer to the press release for a complete list of recalled products.
- Magnesium citrate saline laxative is used for relief of occasional constipation.
- Immunocompromised patients, who consume this product, may be at increased risk for invasive infections caused by Gluconacetobacter liquefaciens that could lead to serious, life threatening adverse health consequences.
- To date, Vi-Jon, LLC has received one report of an adverse reaction potentially related to this recall.
- Anyone with an existing inventory of the recalled product should stop use, distribution and quarantine the product immediately.
- Patients should contact their physician or health care provider if they have experienced any problems that may be related to taking or using recalled magnesium citrate saline laxative.
- Contact Vi-Jon by email at Recalls@Vijon.com for more information about the recall.