

Nizatidine – Drug Shortage

- The drug shortage of nizatidine is ongoing. Nizatidine has been unavailable for at least 90 days.
 - Per Teva and Amneal, nizatidine capsules and oral solution are backordered and the estimated availability dates are unknown at this time.
- Nizatidine is indicated for the treatment of active duodenal ulcer; maintenance therapy for duodenal ulcer patients; treatment of endoscopically diagnosed esophagitis, including erosive and ulcerative esophagitis, and associated heartburn due to gastroesophageal reflux disease (GERD); and for the treatment of active benign gastric ulcer.

Manufacturer	Product Description	NDC #
Teva	Nizatidine capsules	300 mg: 0591-3138-30; 150 mg: 0591-3137-60
Amneal	Nizatidine oral solution	15 mg/mL: 60846-0301-15

- Other H₂ blocker medications such as cimetidine and famotidine are currently available.